

DIRIGIBLE EXPLODES AND FALLS ON CHICAGO BANK KILLING TWELVE PERSONS

FOUR ARE KILLED IN RACE RIOTS IN NATIONAL CAPITAL

Washington, July 22.—With four dead and two score wounded in race riots that continued throughout the night, the possibility of the national capital being put under virtual martial law loomed large today.

Barely has Washington experienced a night of greater terror. The flame that has been smoldering for more than a week burst forth with clashes between whites and blacks in which a marine was shot, probably mortally occurring within a stone's throw of the executive mansion.

The heaviest casualties were suffered by the police. Detective Sergeant Harry Wilson, was dead today, Detective Sergeant Thompson was not expected to live, while four others received serious wounds, and two minor injuries.

Surging mobs of negro and whites proved themselves stronger than the law, all authority represented by the metropolitan and military police, reinforced by cavalrymen and marines, being swept aside.

The hospitals of the city were thronged throughout the night of turmoil with wounded whites and negroes.

Until almost daylight groups of belligerent negroes heavily armed, were touring the streets of the city in automobiles evading or defying the heavy police and military patrol, particularly in the outlying sections.

The mob of more than 1,000 had gathered early in the night, had by that time been practically deserted. It was plain today that the officials in charge of the police and the military in the city were apprehensive concerning what may happen tonight.

Whether a practical condition of martial law will be declared was to be determined today. The temper of the opposing elements indicated that unless stern measures were adopted there will be a further and more serious outbreak.

In houses throughout the city negroes crouched behind their guns, firing an occasional shot to ease the panic of terror and hatred which stirred them.

The police and the military forces, worn by the tumult of the night gathered to reform their lines battered by the whirlwind activities of the struggle.

Every hospital in the city sheltered a part of the night's toll of dead or wounded. Ambulances gradually cleared up the long list of delayed calls which had piled up as the night wore on and the work of destruction outstripped the work of mercy.

In every police station in the city were gathered motley crowds of prisoners, white and black, brought in wholesale lots, such as Washington had never seen before.

At the eighth precinct station there were 51 prisoners sweltering in the crowded cells. Number six reported 35 prisoners, and number three, 20. Out or the tangled mass of reports at police headquarters the best that could be discovered was that some hundreds had been arrested or temporarily detained during the night.

The casualty list, in dead and dying was largely white. The negroes, armed and prepared for the struggle, suffered less.

CHARGE OPPONENTS OF LEAGUE ARE ACTUATED BY DISLIKE OF WILSON

Washington, July 21.—To "person al dislike" of President Wilson, Senator Pat Harrison, Democrat, of Mississippi, attributed much of the opposition among certain Republican senators to ratification of the peace treaty in a speech in the senate Monday afternoon.

Harrison also charged that these Republican senators reflected the opposition to the disarmament provisions of the League of Nations covenant on the part of the munition and armament makers of Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts, "into whose pockets millions of dollars have flowed in the past decade."

The Mississippi senator declared that certain Republican senators, jealous of President Wilson's growing ascendancy, exhausted every means at their command to embarrass and harass the president while he was laboring at the peace conference. He assailed Senators Knox of Pennsylvania, Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, and Lodge, of Massachusetts, who, he said had argued that the League covenant "affected the rights of American labor."

"When did these distinguished senators become so solicitous," so much interested in the welfare of labor," he asked. "What is there in their public records to disclose to labor their interest in it or sympathy for it."

Senator Harrison accused Senator Lodge of attempting to embarrass the president during the Fiume controversy by telegraphing the Italian societies of Boston approval of the Italian claims in the Adriatic.

"His mind was beclouded by partisan prejudice and his heart was moved by political expediency," the Mississippi senator declared.

"Republican senators," Harrison charged, "when the representatives of America were doing everything in their power commensurate with right and justice, to compromise our differences with Japan and maintain our friendly relations with her, fanned the fires of discontent and did everything to widen the breach."

In their efforts to hamper and injure the president, Senator Harrison continued, they had even gone so far as to adopt tactics and employ oratory which "sounded sympathetic to German ears."

SHOP WORKERS RAISED.

London, July 22.—The wages of all shop assistants, numbering about one million, will receive an automatic wage increase of from $2 to $2.50 weekly, the employees of all distributive trades having been listed under the Board of Trades Act.

TUMULTY DENIES REPORT THAT HE IS TO SUCCEED BURLESON.

Joseph P. Tumulty, private secretary to President Wilson, has emphatically denied the much-published report that he is to succeed Postmaster-General Burleson. Secretary Tumulty classed the report as "pure gossip."

BULLETINS

Cincinnati, O., July 22.—Three men under suspicion of being the desecrators of the grave of 15 year old Clara Fisher in St. Stephens cemetery near Fort Thomas, Ky., last Thursday night, are expected to be arrested within a few hours and the authorities believe this will clear up the mystery surrounding the case.

Washington, July 22.—Fifty-one Americans have been killed in Mexico, since March 31, 1917, without a single conviction of a Mexican, Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, today told the rules committee of the house.

Washington, July 22.—Rowland B. Mahany, of Buffalo, assistant to the secretary of labor, has been elected a director of the United States housing corporation to succeed Wm. J. Spencer, it was announced today.

Washington, July 22.—President Wilson was asked to declare martial law in the District of Columbia to end the race riots here, by resolution introduced in the house today by Rep. Emerson, of Ohio.

Mt. Clemens, Mich., July 22.—Henry Ford is through with the grueling examination he has undergone for eight days in the trial of his $1,000,000 suit against the Chicago Tribune. After a morning given over to questions dealing with Ford's views on various doctrines and governmental policies, Attorney Stevenson closed his direct examination of Ford at 10:30 o'clock today.

CAUGHT BOOTLEGGING.

Cleveland, O., July 22.—F. J. Klein, former wholesale liquor dealer, who conducts a soft drink parlor, was the first victim of wartime prohibition in Cleveland. Arrested on charges of selling whiskey, Klein waived examination and was held under $1,000 bond.

CORN OVER 5 FEET TALL

Des Moines, Iowa, July 22.—Corn eight feet two inches high on July 4, is the record claimed by T. L. Allen of this city. Mr. Allen exhibited a stock which he cut down on that day. It measured over eight feet and was beginning to tassle. He planted it May 20, and it was hand tended.

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN JOIN IN STRIKE

London, July 22.—Three hundred thousand miners have joined the strike in the English and the Welsh coal fields, the Pall Mall Gazette estimated today.

From 800 to 5,000 sailors from the British fleet are engaged in pumping out mines flooded by the strikers. Most of these are in the north of England.

TWENTY FOUR HOUR STRIKE IS FAILURE

London, July 22.—The proposed general 24 hour strike throughout Europe, which was to have begun yesterday, proved a failure.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph reported today that in only one country—Austria, could it be termed anything like a complete success. This news was not confirmed from any other source.

In France the strike was doomed before time for it to begin, the French general federation of labor calling it off.

Further dispatches from Copenhagen said the strike proved a failure in Sweden and Denmark but that some of the Socialist workers obeyed the call in Norway.

In Rome, a general walkout also failed.

The attempt to bring about a general European strike was engineered by radical Socialists.

Berlin is without street railway transportation, gas and electricity as the result of a strike of the workers there, said a dispatch from that city.

Socialists in most of the German cities are agitating, the dispatch added.

ENGLAND APPROVES ANGLO-FRENCH TREATY

London, July 22.—England today formally stands by the side of France to repel any future German invasion, the house of commons having unanimously passed the Anglo-French treaty bill. It now remains for the French chamber of deputies and the United States senate to adopt ratification measures to make the triple defensive alliance complete.

To England also goes the first honors of giving official approval to the peace treaty with Germany. When brought up in the house of commons on Monday night a bill recommending the ratification of the pact was passed by 163 to 4 votes.

An attempt to interject the Irish question in the debate failed.

The proposed trial of the ex-kaiser was also brought up which led the premier to say, in reply to a query, that he knew of no neutral country that wanted to be the seat of the trial.

CLEMENCEAU FACES CRISIS IN CAREER

Paris, July 22.—Premier Clemenceau faced greatest crisis since he formed his present ministry when he rose in the chamber of deputies this afternoon to defend the governments policies against heavy attacks.

Several sections of the French political parties which had tried unsuccessfully during the war to down the "Tiger" were expected to combine against him today. The general impression is that the premier will need all his great parliamentary skill to avoid defeat, but that he will rise to the crisis once more and confound his critics.

The Petit Journal crystallizes the tone of French press comment this morning when it says: "The cabinet will resist the attacks."

REFUSE REQUEST OF PRESIDENT

Washington, July 22.—By a vote of 8 to 7, President Wilson's request for authority to appoint provisionally an American representative on the inter-allied reparations commission before the ratification of the peace treaty, was refused by the senate foreign relations committee.

Stations along the route where supplies can be replenished have been established by D'Annunzio.

STORAGE OF LIQUOR IN HOMES LEGAL UNDER DRY BILL

Washington, July 22.—The prohibition enforcement bill, "drastic" provisions and all, was adopted yesterday section by section by the House, but a man's right to store liquor in his home, stood up against all attacks.

On the final count, only three votes were recorded in favor of an amendment to make home possession of intoxicants unlawful.

After all perfecting amendments had been adopted, and others, designed to make the bill less severe, were bowled over in a chorus of "noes" an attempt was made to adjourn over night.

This prevailed, but there was a demand for a roll call, and the prohibition forces, summoned from all sides by the leaders, flocked into the chamber in sufficient numbers to keep the House in session for the tedious roll call vote on half a dozen amendments in dispute, which had to be passed on, before a vote was taken on the bill as a whole.

Demand for formal reading of the engrossed bill, which was not in shape, forced adjournment and delayed passage until today.

The first fight of the day was over the section, giving courts the right to put under bond a person convicted of having violated the liquor law. This was stricken out after Representative Warren Gard, of Ohio, Democrat, had pointed out that it provided "double punishment for the poor man," who might be sent to jail. The vote was 83 to 66, many prohibitionists opposing its retention.

When the House reached Section 35, of the bill, which dealt with enforcement of constitutional enforcement of prohibition and contained the provision that it was not unlawful to store liquor at home for personal use, the scene was not unlike that on a stock market on a high sales day. Everybody sought to speak or to offer an amendment, fully a score clamoring for recognition at one time.

First consideration, as a matter of parliamentary right, was given to Chairman A. J. Volstead, of the judiciary committee, in charge of the bill, who had two amendments. These fixed the time for reporting possession of intoxicants. In one Chairman Volstead offered which the House accepted, the time specified in the proclamation by the State Department as to the effective date of constitutional prohibition—January 16, 1920—was accepted without discussion.

Representative Thomas L. Rubey, of Missouri, Democrat, obtained the floor after Chairman Volstead was through with the section and immediately announced his intention to throw the searchlight on American wine cellars, reported to be stocked with liquor enough to last for generations. His amendment provided that a person should not possess more than $50 worth of liquor which a member likened to "one white chip in a steam boat poker game," considering the high cost of the product in the closing days of the bars. The House did not take kindly to this proposal and defeated it.

With this out of the way, Representative John E. Raker, of California, Democrat, offered what the House had been waiting for—an amendment to make it unlawful for one to have liquor in one's own dwelling. Chairman Volstead opposed it, saying this section had received serious consideration by friends of prohibition.

CHICAGO BANK BECOMES CHARNEL HOUSE AFTER A STRANGE ACCIDENT

Chicago, July 22.—The death list in the tragic dirigible balloon disaster here was increased to 12 today when Milton G. Norton, a staff photographer of the International Film Service, died from injuries he received in his fall from the blimp.

At least one other of the 26 who were injured may die, but the remainder are reported today as being on the road to recovery.

The first official investigation will come when Coroner Hoffman summons a jury for the inquest over the bodies of the dead. States Attorney Hoyne, also is conducting a probe and has declared that prosecution will follow if any evidence of negligence is discovered. Federal authorities have not determined their course of procedure, but will go into every phase of the subject.

One of the almost certain results of the disaster is that the city council will draft and pass ordinances regulating future traffic over the city by aircraft of all descriptions.

The accident is the first of its kind that ever has occurred over a great city. Dirigibles have crashed to earth over battlefields or above aviation camps but never before has a huge balloon crashed down in the crowded heart of metropolis. For this reason it is not unlikely that legislation which the council may enact will be in the nature of pioneer rules for air traffic that may form the basis for future aerial lawmaking.

The coroner's investigation is due to get under way today but may be delayed for witnesses. Eighteen persons, most of them employees of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, of Akron, which owned the ill-fated blimp are being held as witnesses.

A squad of workmen early today completed the task of clearing away the charred and shattered debris left by the flaming blimp as it crashed through the skylight of the bank. The interior of the bank called by architects a perfect specimen of Grecian art, revealed today a hideous aftermath of the tragedy.

There were traces of where bodies, torn and mangled, had been taken up, bit by bit and carried to morgues to await identification. Outside the bank a curious throng gathered as the big financial institution prepared to open for business despite the fact that its counting room could scarcely have been more completely wrecked had a shell from a giant gun crashed down upon it.

Of the 11 killed in the disaster, five were girls employed as clerks or stenographers in the bank. Four other employees of the bank lost their lives while Earl Weaver, mechanic, and Earl Davenport, a publicity man, were two passengers aboard the blimp who were killed. All of the victims except Weaver, who came from Akron, Ohio, were residents of Chicago.

The cause of the tragedy as yet remains unsolved. Jack Boettner, the pilot, who is held for the coroner's investigation, is unable to advance any logical explanation. One theory is that dripping oil from the motors may have ignited the gas bag; another is that sparks from the propeller may have leaped to the bag as gas was being "valved in" while the theory that friction between the silk balloons and the rubber gas bag caused the tragedy has been advanced.

Reports of negligence on the part of the owners, makers and mechanics of the balloon, which only the most thorough probe can justify, are current. It is declared that the blimp was hastily assembled by men unfamiliar with such work and it is admitted that the dirigible is the first to be equipped with rotary style motors, which, it is believed, may not have been tested properly or installed. Correspondence revealing instructions given the men who assembled the blimp by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, has been seized and will be used in the various investigations.

It is charged also that the aeronautical expert under whose direction the flight was made, knew nothing about the dirigible's motors. This expert, W. C. Young in charge of the aeronautics department of the Goodyear company is among the witnesses held.

The dirigible, it has been disclosed, was built chiefly for publicity purposes, and at the time the disaster occurred, it was engaged in a flight from White City, an amusement resort, over the business section of the city.

and Earl Davenport, publicity representative of White City.

Spectators watching the flight from the downtown streets first saw wisps of smoke coming from the big gas bag. Then the balloon burst into flames and, as it burned the engines and carriage left the gas bag and plunged downward, landing squarely on the skylight of the bank.

The heavy body of the blimp crashed through the steel frame work of the skylight and dashed down into the counting room of the bank, where 150 clerks were at work. As it struck the floor the gas tanks of the engines exploded, throwing a sheet of flaming gasoline over the men and women at work. Indescribable horror prevailed in the counting room as frantic men and women fled to escape the furnace like heat and the searing flames that emanated from the wreck.

"My God, it's raining hell," shouted one terror stricken employe as he staggered away.

Women clerks ran from the building with their clothing in flames and blood streaming from cuts caused by flying wreckage. The bodies of men and women were crushed and mutilated beyond description or were burned black in the fire. The shrieks of agony were appalling and in the midst of indescribable pandemonium lay the snarling, fire spitting agent of destruction, now an ugly, inert mass of wreckage.

As the gondola of the dirigible started in its downward flight the five men who, aboard it leaped with their parachutes. In mid-air, however, the flames caught the parachutes of Davenport and Weaver and they fell unprotected, meeting instant death as they struck the earth.

NO TRAIN TIME TABLES FURNISHED WITH THIS STORY

Wheeling, W. Va., July 22.—There is enough whiskey in this town to give every inhabitant a pint each officials state. It's doing the thirsty no good, however, as it is in the Ohio County jail. In all there are 2,000 gallons of whiskey, of which 1,200 was taken in one raid by Federal officers, the remainder being taken from persons bringing it from wet territory just before prohibition became effective in Ohio and West Virginia. The whiskey, which is valued at $54,000 would give two ounce drinks to 120,000 thirsties it is estimated.

George Phillips, State Law Enforcer, has returned from Monongalia County, where he arrested forty-four men and one woman for bringing booze from Pennsylvania, capturing among other things, forty-seven quarts and 210 pints left on trains by persons who feared capture. Hundreds of gallons of booze were found in other spots.

FAIR EXCHANGE IS NO ROBBERY

Cleveland, July 22.—A fair exchange is no robbery. The thief who visited the home of John Williams, Andes court, early today evidently believed in this adage as he left an old pair of shoes in the place of a new pair which he appropriated. However, he left nothing in exchange for a suit of clothes, and a gold watch also missing.

AUTO BANDITS ROB MESSENGER OF $35,000

Chicago, July 2.—Two automobile bandits today held up Philip Fleming, a messenger of the Austin National Bank and robbed him of $35,000. Fleming was on his way from the Austin bank to deposit the funds in a downtown institution. The robbery occurred as he was waiting to take a train from Austin, a suburb, to the city.

JUST WHAT THEY WANT.

Cardiff, Wales, July 22.—The city council of Barry has decided to let the pitiless rays of publicity shine on bathing girls who wear immodest costumes. Beach inspectors are instructed to take photographs of all mermaids insufficiently clad and post copies in public places. The Barry council took this step after two saucy sea nymphs had slapped an inspector who reprimanded them for basking in a mother eve.

A VERY VALUABLE BOOK JUST NOW.

We are glad to have the Covenant of the League of Nations in a book form, for even after our Senators have got through their, in most cases frivolous objections to it, it is going to stand as the greatest agreement for world peace since creation. The book comes in the shape of a small sized handsome volume of 188 pages, large type, and embraces, besides the text of the covenant, 27 articles fully explaining the meaning of each one of the 26 articles of the League. The name of the book is "The Covenant." It is published by Doubleday, Page and Co., New York.

The authors of these articles explanatory of each one of the 26 articles of the League are Ex-President Taft; his brother, Henry W. Taft, a noted New York lawyer; George W. Wickersham, who was Attorney General in President Taft's cabinet; and A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University—a quartette of perhaps as noted literary men as the country affords. They ought to know the meaning and the obligations of language, if any body does. Each one of them contributes a number of the articles.

Most of the objections raised against the covenant of the League of Nations appeared to rest upon a misapprehension of the document, especially since it had been amended to meet the criticisms made in America, so that it seemed worth while to explain the meaning of the several articles as finally adopted, hence this book.

The articles begin with a few introductory letters setting forth the general object sought by the League, the means essential for attaining it, the nature of the League proposed, and its effect, on absence of effect, upon the sovereignty of the members. The articles of the Covenant are taken up in succession and considered in order to make clear their meaning, their purpose, and the necessity or propriety of their provisions.

So far as we have been able to follow the arguments set forth by these able expositors, we feel that the League is certainly the strongest agreement ever entered into by the nations of the world to behave themselves, or suffer the consequences if they do not. The Senate of the United States ought to ratify the Treaty without a moments delay.

We do not know the price of "The Covenant," but you can get it by a line to Doubleday, Page & Co. Think, however, if you send $1.00 you will get the book, and perhaps some change back.

Some of our readers may be interested in a list of the original members of the League of Nations, signatories of the Treaty of Peace, as follows: United States of America, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, British Empire, Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, India, China, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Ecuador, France, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Hedjaz, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Serbia, Siam, Uruguay, (33).

FARMERS BEGIN TO WORRY OVER WHEAT

The rain which fell in torrents all day Sunday, and was followed Monday by much humidity, has caused worry among farmers whose wheat crops are still in the fields, unthreshed. The dampness and heat is liable to cause the wheat to sprout and to rot.

A large percentage of the wheat is unthreshed, and much of it has been allowed to remain in the fields, awaiting the arrival of the threshers. Shocks will have to be opened in order that the wheat may dry out, and another rainfall while it is in that condition would cause further damage.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

EVERETT TELLS SANDRA OF
LEOLA.

CHAPTER XX.

"Another proof of guilt," I thought as I realized the pictures were missing. "Why it was like a fiction story!" I was sure I never had heard one quite like it. There ran through my mind even then that if I had to leave Everett, I would be ashamed to go home. Ashamed to face all the boys and girls who had known me all my life. What an awful thing for me. Only seventeen! and my life ruined.

Then such anguish went through me that I nearly fainted. Dinner time came at last and with it came Everett. He looked tired and talked but little. I thought dinner would never end. At last we were seated in the library before the fire with our coffee. I moved my chair so that I could look at him, and then when we were alone, I asked without preamble:

"Who is the lovely woman whose pictures are in your bureau drawers, Everett?" My voice trembled a little in spite of all I could do.

He gave a perceptible start. "What pictures? And what were you doing in my things?"

"Mother always tidies dad's chiffonier so I thought I would do the same for you." I answered his last question first so that I might gain time to steady my voice a little. "The pictures were of a beautiful woman. On the back of one it said 'From Leola to Everett.' What an odd name, Leola," I repeated.

Something very like groan broke from Everett.

"As well now as some other time," he said in a low voice, but I realized he was talking to himself; that he had not meant me to hear. I said nothing, but waited, every nerve in my body quivering with excitement. "Sit over there." He pointed to a chair where he could look at me, but where it would be impossible for me to see his face.

Reluctantly I obeyed. "I meant to tell you before. It is your right to know. But you were so young that I waited a while hoping you might become accustomed to me and so better able to understand what I am going to tell you."

He waited so long that I thought he had changed his mind, and stirred uneasily. I was all a-thrill with the wonder, the something akin to fear of what was about to tell me.

He took from his pocket the two pictures I had mentioned. He looked at them, then opened a drawer in a little table at his elbow and laid them in it.

"Yes, Leola is an unusual name; and she was an unusual woman. She was my wife. We married when I was thirty, she was twenty-six. I was jealous. She was imprudent and would brook no restraint. We quarreled constantly. Yet—I loved her," his voice trailed off dreamily for a moment as if he had forgotten me, "and she loved me. But she was strong willed," his voice cold and

Splendid Way To Reduce Your Weight

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, flabby figure and forty inch waist "gives us away."

The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a starving diet, violent massage or strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola, take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will often give quick relief from overburdening fat. Phynola taken at meal time assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat; at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you with the genuine Phynola at a small cost.

calm again, "and so was I. Our fierce love-making was interrupted by fiercer quarrels—always because of some indiscretion of hers, and because of my jealousy which she aroused. I was rich, she was a brilliant woman. Society laughed at her indiscretions, calling them eccentricities. She knew this and it made her careless—careless of herself, and of me."

Again he waited what seemed an unconscionable time before he went on while I waited breathless, forgetting it was my husband who was talking, thinking only of the story he was telling me.

"One day she met a man who seemed to attract her more even than others had done. I accused her, and she only laughed. My impression was confirmed when one day I found him making love to her. She was laughing, sure of her fascinations and careless that she hurt him, as she was indifferent to my anguish. That night we quarreled worse than ever before. We both said cruel, bitter things—I shall never cease to hear them. I know now, I knew then, that Leola was good and true. In my heart I never doubted her."

Tomorrow—More About Leola.

Stomach is Quick to Upset When School Children Are Idle

VACATION days are days of over-eating and under-exercising for most boys and girls. They loiter around nibbling at light food, unconcerned whether the fruit is green or ripe.

The result is cramps, skin eruptions, pimples, "summer colds," constipation and diarrhea. The basis of such trouble is an upset stomach, and nothing will give safer and quicker relief than the well-known Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, a formula evolved some 30 years ago by Dr. Caldwell himself. Syrup Pepsin is now used by millions of people and is today the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world.

It is the mildest and gentlest of laxatives. It regulates the stomach and bowels so well that they can soon work normally again without the aid of medicine. And unlike the harsher physics and cathartics, Syrup Pepsin does not gripe or cause discomfort, even to a tiny baby.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size. A free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

Don't burn good fuel

Its a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEP SINCO.

PROF. SCHLESINGER RESIGNS POSITION AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Prof. Arthur M. Schlesinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Schlesinger of this city, has resigned his position in the department of history of Ohio State University, and will probably become head of the department of history in the Iowa State College.

The Ohio State Journal says of his resignation: "Prof. A. M. Schlesinger of the American history department, Ohio State University, is among a score of professors and assistants leaving to accept better-paying positions at other educational institutions or in business."

Schlesinger has resigned and probably will become head of the American history department in the University of Iowa.

By appointment of Governor Cox, he has been engaged in writing a history of Ohio's part in the war. Schlesinger also is a member of the committee of 48, representing each state in the country, which is circulating petitions calling for a convention in October at Chicago or St. Louis to form a new national political party of liberal thinkers. It is characterized by some as a cross between Wilson democracy and the Socialist party. Its advocates contend that none of the present day parties has a true grasp of the needs of labor and other public problems.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED AT PARTY

Wednesday evening, July 16th, Miss Lauretta Hurley entertained at her home with a lawn party, announcing the approaching marriage of her sister, Miss Veda A. Hurley, to Roscoe Beal, of Xenia. The lawn was effectively decorated in pink and white, harmonizing beautifully with the green foliage, distinct through the gleam of the Japanese lanterns, which were hung about the lawn.

As the Victrola struck with an opening chord to a march, a mock wedding was arranged in a simple, but pleasing way, revealing to the guests the interesting secret.

About the interesting secret, which was hung, and on each girl's name was written. As each boy found a card, he led his partner to a table, where a two-course supper was served.

From a cosy little spot under the grape arbor, lemonade was served.

Those present were: The Misses Ella and Agnes Shambaugh, Laura Stephens, Anna Furnas, Reva Hornet, Mrs. Freda Spears, Edith Jenkins, Kathleen Gerhard, Veda and Lauretta Hurley, Ernestine and Howard Shambaugh, who acted as bride and groom in the mock wedding; Donald Smith, acting as preacher; Mrs. Levy Shambaugh, John Denny, Denzil Earley, Keller Hoake, Oscar Stanfield, Wilbur Spears, Donald DeHaven, Lonie Gerhard, Roscoe Beal, Kenneth Coate and Carl Smith.

The bride and groom-to-be will have many hearty congratulations, as both have a large circle of friends.

WEAVER-SMITH

John Weaver and Mrs. Marie Smith of south of Bellbrook, slipped away very quietly and were married in Newport, Ky., last Wednesday morning. The bride was attired in blue georgette, with hat to match. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kolker, south of town and a pretty and very attractive woman, while the groom is a son of I. F. Weaver and is connected with the firm of I. F. Weaver and Sons, and is very popular among his associates. They will reside at his home in Bellbrook.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Xenia people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. W. I. Smith, 28 Walnut St., Xenia, says: "A few years ago I had kidney trouble that about used me up. I ached from the small of my back up into the back of my head. I was also dizzy and nervous and every time I did much of anything, I began to get tired out and would be awfully weak. Sometimes, I could hardly do any work. A neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but as I had tried so many different kidney remedies, I didn't think they would help. She finally persuaded me to give Doan's a trial and they entirely cured me. I have never felt better than since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous,
Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses. Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves. People with plenty of red blood corpuscles and strong, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support. There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost.

To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery, to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance, to be not only a man but as men now are, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-feren every day for seven days—and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel ambitious, more vigorous and keen-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. Sayre & Hemphill and all other druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

CHAUTAQUA OPENS IN XENIA JULY 28

Xenia Chautauqua begins July 28 with an afternoon program by the Althea Chorus of girl violinists. Programs for the entire week are being distributed over the city by E. I. Ellenberger, eight-day advance man who arrived Sunday evening from Williamson, W. Va. In addition Mr. Ellenberger is distributing pennant ropes, window cards, "Community Builders," Chautauqua hats and various other pieces of attractive advertising.

The final week preliminary to the Chautauqua will be a week of intensive campaign on the part of the local committee. The ticket sale will be pushed day and night and it is believed that the attendance this year will be far in excess of any previous record.

Brilliant entertainment and constructive lectures are the features of the 1919 Redpath program. It is difficult to conceive of a better investment than a Chautauqua season ticket when it is considered that it admits to these interesting features:

Althea Violin Chorus, Lou J. Beauchamp, humorous philosopher; Knight MacGregor, Scottish baritone; Clarissa Harrold, in a modern play; Frank L. Mulholland, lecture on "The Path of Greatest Profit"; Henry A. Adrian, "With Burbank in Wonderland"; "The Melting Pot," with a cast of ten people; Sibyl Sammis-MacDermid dramatic soprano; Elizabeth M. Walsh, overseas Red Cross heroine; "The Chocolate Soldier" Twentieth Century musical comedy, with a cast of twenty five players; the Karyl Orchestral Sextet, Katharine Ridgeway, reader; the Weber Male Quartet of New York City and Captain Paul Bewsher, British air poet and night bomber.

ONE PROFITABLE STREET

Topeka, Kan., July 22.—Topeka Boulevard here is a money maker for the city. Last month, according to the report of the Police Judge, fines amounting to $635.30 were collected from "speeders" caught by traffic policemen. Most of the arrests were made on Topeka boulevard.

Become Slender

A Simple, Guaranteed Method

If you would like to lose, weekly, from one to five pounds of burdensome fat while eating and drinking all you need, also enjoying life far better than at present, just follow this advice:

Take seven deep breaths of fresh air each morning and evening; after each meal take a little oil of korein; eat all you need, but chew thoroughly, and follow other simple directions of the guaranteed Korein system.

Men and women who were waddling around with heavy, sluggish bodies have, in many cases, reported a gradual, agreeable reduction of thirty to eighty pounds, with wonderful benefit to health and figure. This very season is the time to become slender, attractive, vivacious and healthier, very easily.

Get oil of korein at the druggist's; it comes in capsules, convenient to use and is now sold at before-war low prices. Weigh and measure yourself week to week. You can scarcely realize the joy that awaits you in normal symmetrical figure, with good health and longer life. Show others this advertisement.

SCENE—a garage; time, midnight. Characters, the dealer and a transient customer limping in with a damaged tire.

CUSTOMER—"Give me a Firestone; I know what it will do and I haven't time to experiment on an unknown tire."

DEALER—"Sure; you want most miles per dollar and I want most friends per mile."

Exit customer, happy and satisfied, with—

MRS. BRADFIELD IS HOSTESS AT PARTY HONORING BRIDE TO BE

Mrs. Morris Bradfield was hostess to a dozen girl friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Brown, on the Cincinnati pike, Friday afternoon for the pleasure of Miss Frieda Grottenick, the fiancée of George D. Geyer.

Sweet peas and nasturtium decked the rooms, and tiny baskets with candies were the favors. The guest of honor was given a "shower" of gifts, and dainty hand painted china, cut glass and linen were among the presents she received. The guests enjoying the afternoon were: Miss Grottenick, Messrs. Bernice Swabb, Miriam Hawkins, Louise Parrett, Cleo Hurley, Mary Crow, Pauline Smith, Mary Katharine Geyer, Mrs. Henry Dietz of Sidney and Mrs. Cecil Conklin.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR SAMUEL ELLIS

Many friends attended funeral services for Samuel Ellis, which were held at the late home on the Clifton pike Saturday. The Rev. H. C. Biddlecum was in charge of the service, assisted by the Rev. Ames Cook. Remarks concerning the life of the decedent were also made by persons in the gathering, according to the old time custom of the Friends, of which faith Mr. Ellis was a member.

Interment was made in the burial ground on the Ellis farm. The pallbearers were Enos and John Hill, R. F. Bryson, W. B. Bryson, Herbert Davis and Michael Day of Springfield.

BELLBROOK

We received information this week that Prof. M. Jay Flannery, who has been an instructor in Latin in the Hamilton schools for a number of years has been employed to teach the Fairfield High school for the coming year. The Professor was a resident of Bellbrook at two different periods of his life. The first time in the 70's when he was an employee of the Bumgardner carriage works, and the second time in 1882 when he became a teacher in the village schools.

Howard's Buttermilk Cream

The old elm tree at the intersection of Greene, Montgomery and Warren counties that has withstood the howling storms of more than 100 years, had a number of limbs blown from its gigantic trunk in a recent storm.

Mack Murphy and daughter Clara spent Friday with old acquaintances in the village. Mr. Murphy was a former business man of the village, having operated a general store in one of the buildings destroyed in the recent fire.

A most interesting interview with Major Rooks who claims the distinction of being the youngest soldier to bear arms in the Union army during the rebellion, revealed many facts that were altogether unknown to the public, his most intimate friends not being aware of the honor that was his. Mr. Rook's account of his enlistment and service, and his determination to prove a clear title to his claim is given in his own words as follows:

"I enlisted from Sugarcreek township in the second year of the war. I was 12 years and 9 months old at the time. I took part in a number of battles during my two years' service and came out each time unhurt. The only injuries sustained was at a Fourth of July celebration in Virginia in the 1st year of the war when my eyes were severely burned by powder. After the war a contention arose in different sections of the north as to who was the youngest soldier in the service. The contention continued for a number of years till 1887 when all rivals to the honor withdrew their claims leaving the late Senator Foraker and myself the only contestants. It was agreed between Mr. Foraker and myself to compare the records as found in the family bibles. This was accordingly done at the old Foraker home in Highland county and I revealed the fact that the late senator was one month and 12 days older than myself."

FOUR ARE KILLED IN RACE RIOTS IN NATIONAL CAPITAL

Washington, July 22.—With four dead and two score wounded in race riots that continued throughout the night, the possibility of the national capital being put under virtual martial law loomed large today.

Barely has Washington experienced a night of greater terror. The flame that has been smouldering for more than a week burst forth with clashes between whites and blacks in which a marine was shot, probably mortally occurring within a stone's throw of the executive mansion.

The heaviest casualties were suffered by the police. Detective Sergeant Harry Wilson, was dead today, Detective Sergeant Thompson was not expected to live, while four others received serious wounds, and two minor injuries.

Surging mobs of negro and whites proved themselves stronger than the law, all authority represented by the metropolitan and military police, reinforced by cavalrymen and marines, being swept aside.

The hospitals of the city were thronged throughout the night of turmoil with wounded whites and negroes.

Until almost daylight groups of belligerent negroes heavily armed, were touring the streets of the city in automobiles evading or defying the heavy police and military patrol, particularly in the outlying sections.

The downtown section, where a riotous mob of more than 1,000 had gathered early in the night, had by that time been practically deserted.

It was plain today that the officials in charge of the police and the mili-

CHARGE OPPONENTS OF LEAGUE ARE ACTUATED BY DISLIKE OF WILSON

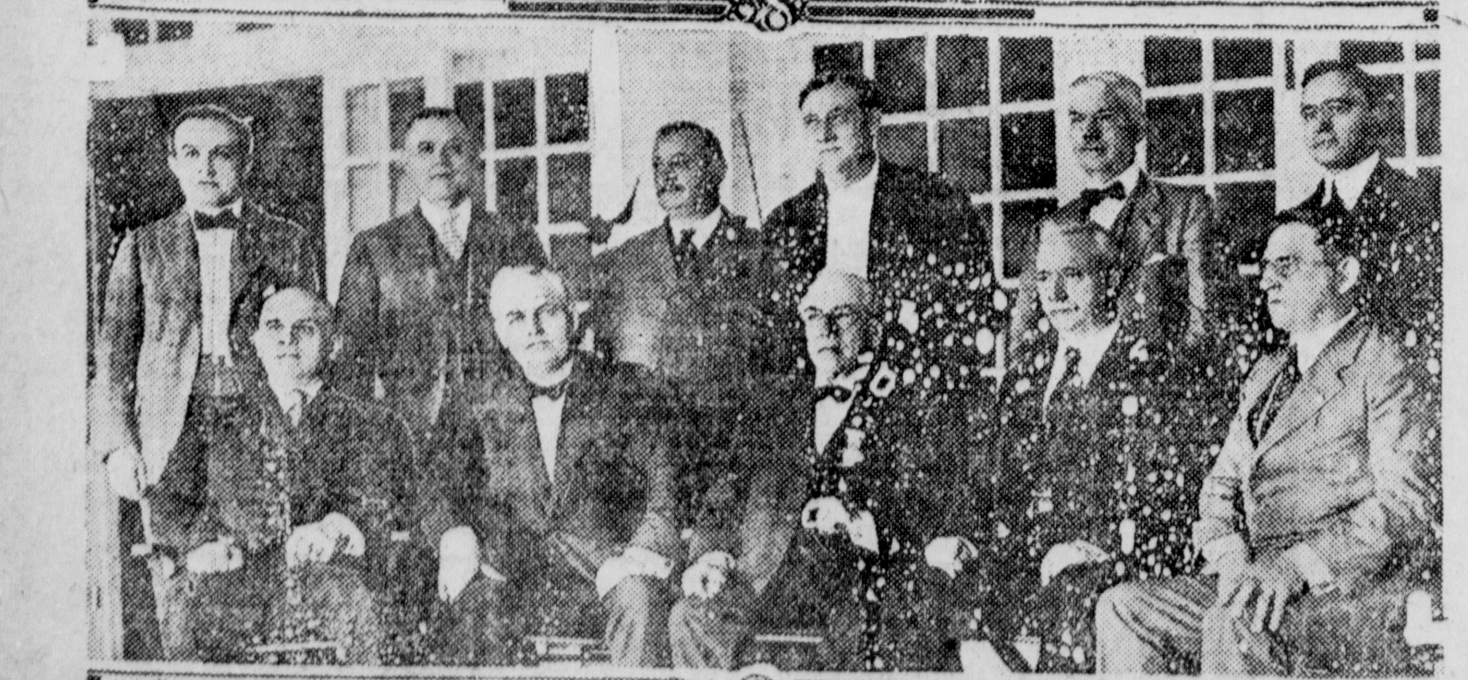

Washington, July 21.—To "person al dislike" of President Wilson, Senator Pat Harrison, Democrat, of Mississippi, attributed much of the opposition among certain Republican senators to ratification of the peace treaty in a speech in the senate Monday afternoon.

Harrison also charged that these Republican senators reflected the opposition to the disarmament provisions on the part of the munition and armament makers of Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, Connecticut and Massachusetts, "into whose pockets millions of dollars have flowed in the past decade."

The Mississippi senator declared that certain Republican senators, jealous of President Wilson's growing ascendancy, exhausted every means at their command to embarrass and harass the president while he was laboring at the peace conference. He assailed Senators Knox of Pennsylvania, Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, and Lodge, of Massachusetts, who, he said had argued that the League covenant "affected the rights of American labor."

"When did these distinguished senators become so solicitous," so much interested in the welfare of labor," he asked. "What is there in their public records to disclose to labor

Washington, July 22.—Fifty-one Americans have been killed in Mexico, since March 31, 1917, without a single conviction of a Mexican, Henry P. Fletcher, American ambassador to Mexico, today told the rules committee of the house.

Washington, July 22.—Rowland B. Mahany, of Buffalo, assistant to the secretary of labor, has been elected a director of the United States housing corporation to succeed Wm. J. Spencer, it was announced today.

Des Moines, Iowa, July 22.—Corn eight feet two inches high on July 4, is the record claimed by T. L. Allen of this city. Mr. Allen exhibited a stock which he cut down on that day. It measured over eight feet and was beginning to tassle. He planted it May 20, and it was hand tended.

THREE HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN JOIN IN STRIKE

London, July 22.—Three hundred thousand miners have joined the strike in the English and the Welsh coal fields, the Pall Mall Gazette estimated today.

From 800 to 5,000 sailors from the British fleet are engaged in pumping out mines flooded by the strikers. Most of these are in the north of England.

TWENTY FOUR HOUR STRIKE IS FAILURE

London, July 22.—The proposed general 24 hour strike throughout Europe, which was to have begun yesterday, proved a failure.

The Copenhagen correspondent of the Exchange Telegraph reported today that in only one country—Austria, could it be termed anything like a complete success. This news was not confirmed from any other source.

In France the strike was doomed before time for it to begin, the French general federation of labor calling it off.

Further dispatches from Copenhagen said the strike proved a failure in Sweden and Denmark but that some of the Socialists workers obeyed the call in Norway.

In Rome, a general walkout also failed.

The attempt to bring about a general European strike was engineered by radical Socialists.

Berlin is without street railway transportation, gas and electricity as the result of a strike of the workers there, said a dispatch from that city. Socialists in most of the German cities are agitating, the dispatch added.

ENGLAND APPROVES ANGLO-FRENCH TREATY

London, July 22.—England today formally stands by the side of France to repel any future German invasion, the house of commons having unanimously passed the Anglo-French treaty bill. It now remains for the French chamber of deputies and the United States senate to adopt ratification measures to make the triple defensive alliance complete.

To England also goes the first honors of giving official approval to the peace treaty with Germany. When brought up in the house of commons on Monday night a bill recommending the ratification of the pact was passed by 163 to 4 votes.

An attempt to interject the Irish question in the debate failed.

The proposed trial of the ex-kaiser was also brought up which led the premier to say, in reply to a query, that he knew of no neutral country that wanted to be the seat of the trial.

CLEMENCEAU FACES CRISIS IN CAREER

Paris, July 22.—Premier Clemenceau faced greatest crisis since he formed his present ministry when he rose in the chamber of deputies this afternoon to defend the governments policies against heavy attacks.

Several sections of the French political parties which had tried unsuccessfully during the war to down the "Tiger" were expected to combine against him today. The general impression is that the premier will need all his great parliamentary skill to avoid defeat, but that he will rise to the crisis once more and confound his critics.

The Petit Journal crystallizes the tone of French press comment this morning when it says: "The cabinet will resist the attacks."

REFUSE REQUEST OF PRESIDENT

Washington, July 22.—By a vote of 8 to 7, President Wilson's request for authority to appoint provisionally an American representative on the inter-allied reparations commission before the ratification of the peace treaty, was refused by the senate foreign relations committee.

STORAGE OF LIQUOR IN HOMES LEGAL UNDER DRY BILL.

Washington, July 22.—The prohibition enforcement bill, "drastic" provisions and all, was adopted yesterday section by section by the House, but a man's right to store liquor in his home, stood up against all attacks.

On the final count, only three votes were recorded in favor of an amendment to make home possession of intoxicants unlawful.

After all perfecting amendments had been adopted, and others, designed to make the bill less severe, were bowled over in a chorus of "noes" an attempt was made to adjourn over night.

This prevailed, but there was a demand for a roll call, and the prohibition forces, summoned from all sides, in sufficient numbers to keep the House in session for the tedious roll call vote on half a dozen amendments in dispute, which had to be passed on, before a vote was taken on the bill as a whole.

Demand for formal reading of the engrossed bill, which was not in shape, forced adjournment and delayed passage until today.

The first fight of the day was over the section, giving courts the right to put under bond a person convicted of having violated the liquor law. This was stricken out after Representative Warren Gard, of Ohio, Democrat, had pointed out that it provided "double punishment for the poor man," who might be sent to jail. The vote was 83 to 66, many prohibitionists opposing its retention.

When the House reached Section 35, of the bill, which dealt with enforcement of constitutional enforcement of prohibition and contained the provision that it was not unlawful to store liquor at home for personal use, the scene was not unlike that on a stock market on a high sales day. Everybody sought to speak or to offer an amendment, fully a score clamoring for recognition at one time.

First consideration, as a matter of parliamentary right, was given to Chairman A. J. Volstead, of the judiciary committee, in charge of the bill, who had two amendments. These fixed the time for reporting possession of intoxicants. In one Chairman Volstead offered which the House accepted, the time specified in the proclamation by the State Department as to the effective date of constitutional prohibition—January 16, 1920—was accepted without discussion.

Representative Thomas L. Rubey, of Missouri, Democrat, obtained the floor after Chairman Volstead was through with the section and immediately announced his intention to throw the searchlight on American wine cellars, reported to be stocked with liquor enough to last for generations. His amendment provided that a person should not possess more than 550 worth of liquor which a member likened to "one white chip in a steamboat poker game," considering the high cost of the product in the closing days of the bars. The House did not take kindly to this proposal and defeated it.

With this out of the way, Representative John E. Raker, of California, Democrat, offered what the House had been waiting for—an amendment to make it unlawful for one to have liquor in one's own dwelling. Chairman Volstead opposed it, saying this section had received serious consideration by friends of prohibition,

CHICAGO BANK BECOMES CHARNEL HOUSE AFTER A STRANGE ACCIDENT

Chicago, July 22.—The death list in the tragic dirigible balloon disaster here was increased to 12 today when Milton G. Norton, a staff photographer of the International Film Service, died from injuries he received in his fall from the blimp.

At least one other of the 26 who were injured may die, but the remainder are reported today as being on the road to recovery.

The first official investigation will come when Coroner Hoffman summons a jury for the inquest over the bodies of the dead. States Attorney Hoyne, also is conducting a probe and has declared that prosecution will follow if any evidence of negligence is discovered. Federal authorities have not determined their course of procedure, but will go into every phase of the subject.

One of the almost certain results of the disaster is that the city council will draft and pass ordinances regulating future traffic over the city by aircraft of all descriptions.

The accident is the first of its kind that ever has occurred over a great city. Dirigibles have crashed to earth over battlefields or above aviation camps but never before has a huge balloon crashed down in the crowded heart of metropolis. For this reason it is not unlikely that legislation which the council may enact will be in the nature of pioneer rules for air traffic that may form the basis for future aerial lawmaking.

The coroner's investigation is due to get under way today but may be delayed for witnesses. Eighteen persons, most of them employees of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber company, of Akron, which owned the ill-fated blimp are being held as witnesses.

A squad of workmen early today completed the task of clearing away the charred and shattered debris left by the flaming blimp as it crashed through the skylight of the bank. The interior of the bank called by architects a perfect specimen of Grecian art, revealed today a hideous aftermath of the tragedy.

There were traces of where bodies, torn and mangled, had been taken up, bit by bit and carried to morgues to await identification. Outside the bank a curious throng gathered as the big financial institution prepared to open for business despite the fact that its counting room could scarcely have been more completely wrecked had a shell from a giant gun crashed down upon it.

Of the 11 killed in the disaster, five were girls employed as clerks or stenographers in the bank. Four other employees of the bank lost their lives while Carl Weaver, mechanic, and Earl Davenport, a publicity man, were two passengers aboard the blimp who were killed. All of the victims, except Weaver, who came from Akron, Ohio, were residents of Chicago.

The cause of the tragedy as yet remains unsolved. Jack Boettner, the pilot, who is held for the coroner's investigation, is unable to advance any logical explanation. One theory is that dripping oil from the motors may have ignited the gas bag; another is that sparks from the propeller may have leaped to the bag as gas was being "valved in" while the theory that friction between the silk balloons and the rubber gas bag caused the tragedy has been advanced.

Reports of negligence on the part of the owners, makers and mechanics of the balloon, which only the most thorough probe can justify, are current. It is declared that the blimp was hastily assembled by men unfamiliar with such work and it is admitted that the dirigible is the first to be equipped with rotary style motors, which, it is believed, may not have been tested properly or installed. Correspondence revealing instructions given the men who assembled the blimp by the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, has been seized and will be used in the various investigations.

It is charged also that the aeronautical expert under whose direction the flight was made, knew nothing about the dirigible's motors. This expert, W. C. Young in charge of the aeronautics department of the Goodyear company is among the witnesses held.

The dirigible has been disclosed, was built chiefly for publicity purposes, and at the time the disaster occurred, it was engaged in a flight from White City, an amusement resort, over the business section of the city.

At the time it began its downward flight, the blimp was between 1,000 and 2,000 feet above the earth and according to Pilot Boettner, was making between 40 and 45 miles an hour. It carried five men, three of them members of the crew. The others were Milton C. Norton, a photographer for the International Film Service

NO TRAIN TIME TABLES FURNISHED WITH THIS STORY

Wheeling, W. Va., July 22.—There is enough whiskey in this town to give every inhabitant a pint each officials state. It's doing the thirsty no good, however, as it is in the Ohio County jail. In all there are 2,000 gallons of whiskey, of which 1,200 was taken in one raid by Federal officers, the remainder being taken from persons bringing it from wet territory just before prohibition became effective in Ohio and West Virginia. The whiskey, which is valued at $54,000 would give two ounce drinks to 120,000 thirsties it is estimated.

George Phillips, State Law Enforcer, has returned from Monongalia County, where he arrested forty-four men and one woman for bringing booze from Pennsylvania, capturing among other things, forty-seven quarts and 210 pints left on trains by persons who feared capture. Hundreds of gallons of booze were found in other spots.

FAIR EXCHANGE IS NO ROBBERY

Cleveland, July 22.—A fair exchange is no robbery. The thief who visited the home of John Williams, Andes court, early today evidently believed in this adage as he left an old pair of shoes in the place of a new pair which he appropriated. However, he left nothing in exchange for a suit of clothes, and a gold watch also missing.

AUTO BANDITS ROB MESSENGER OF $35,000

Chicago, July 2.—Two automobile bandits today held up Philip Fleming, a messenger of the Austin National Bank and robbed him of $35,000. Fleming was on his way from the Austin bank to deposit the funds in a downtown institution. The robbery occurred as he was waiting to take a train from Austin, a suburb, to the city.

JUST WHAT THEY WANT.

Cardiff, Wales, July 22.—The city council of Barry has decided to let the pitiless rays of publicity shine on bathing girls who wear immodest costumes. Beach inspectors are instructed to take photographs of all maidens insufficiently clad and post copies in public places. The Barry council took this step after two saucy sea nymphs had slapped an inspector who reprimanded them for bathing a la mother eve.

SUES AUTO DRIVER FOR $300 DAMAGES

Alleging that the defendant was driving his car at an unlawful rate of speed, and that the accident was due to this fact, David Jacobson has brought suit to recover $300 damages from Frank Jacoby local automobile agent, whose machine collided with a car in which the plaintiff was riding at the intersection of roads in Zimmerman, May 19.—He asks for $250 for injury which he says left a permanent scar on his face, and $50 for doctor bill. F. L. Johnson, attorney.

THEATERS

BIJOU.

"You're Fired," a Paramount adaptation of the well known "O." Henry story, "The Halberdier of the Little Rhine Schloss," is the starring vehicle for Wallace Reid, popular picture idol, which appears at the Bijou Theater Wednesday. Wanda Hawley is his pretty opposite.

Outside of running a typewriter, playing a xylophone, acting as "halberdier" in a fashionable resort, uncovering a gang of crooks, and saving his father-in-law-to-be from ruin, all of which jobs he resigns to keep from getting fired, this versatile young man has nothing to do. How long he does it and how he wins the girl the Melrose Park community, near of his choice is interestingly told in Chicago. the picture story. Lillian Mason, He was a relative of Wilbur D.

Theodore Roberts, Henry Woodward, Herbert Pryor, Raymond Hatton and William Lesta are also in the cast.

ORPHIUM

"The Follies Girl," presents a pleasant vehicle for Miss Olive Thomas, pretty and attractive Triangle star, who depicts the title role in this production at the Orphium Theater Wednesday.

As a matter of fact, Miss Thomas is really a "follies girl," having been attached to Flo Ziegfield's organization during several contracts and the part is well fitted to her. The story is original and cleverly enacted, the supporting cast consisting of Wallace MacDonald, William V. Mong, Claire McDowell, J. P. Wild, Lee Phelps and Ray Griffith.

IF YOUR BLOOD IS YOUR LIFE

HOW NECESSARY IS PURE
BLOOD TO YOUR GOOD HEALTH.

Pure blood is as necessary to your good health as the air you breathe, the food you eat and the water you drink.

When the blood becomes clogged with impurities, you suffer from constipation, your nerves are weakened, your head aches and you feel generally run-down and exhausted.

The best and quickest way to cleanse the blood of the impurities which cause the trouble is to take the treatment prescribed by a successful physician for his patients.

This liquid treatment, ready prepared is known as Prescription C-2223. It is taken in small doses because it is concentrated, and being readily absorbed, cleanses the blood of the impurities which cause your ill health. After using Prescription C-2223 for a short time, your skin will have that glow of health, indicating that your body is being nourished by pure red blood.

Prescription C-2223 contains no mercury, opium, morphine, chloral or strychnine. It is for sale by most good drug stores at $1.50 a bottle, or the C-2223 Laboratory, Memphis, Tenn., will mail to you on receipt of price. Clip and mail this advertisement for literature.

A VERY VALUABLE BOOK JUST NOW.

We are glad to have the Covenant of the League of Nations in a book form, for even after our Senators have got through their, in most cases frivolous objections to it, it is going to stand as the greatest agreement for world peace since creation. The book comes in the shape of a small sized handsome volume of 188 pages, large type, and embraces, besides the text of the covenant, 27 articles fully explaining the meaning of each one of the 26 articles of the League. The name of the book is "The Covenantant." It is published by Doubleday, Page and Co., New York.

The authors of these articles explanatory of each one of the 26 articles of the League are Ex-President Taft; his brother, Henry W. Taft, a noted New York lawyer; George W. Wickersham, who was Attorney General in President Taft's cabinet; and A. Lawrence Lowell, President of Harvard University—a quartette of perhaps as noted literary men as the country affords. They ought to know the meaning and the obligations of language, if any body does. Each one of them contributes a number of the articles.

Most of the objections raised against the covenant of the League of Nations appeared to rest upon a misapprehension of the document, especially since it had been amended to meet the criticisms made in America, so that it seemed worth while to explain the meaning of the several articles as finally adopted, hence this book.

The articles begin with a few introductory letters setting forth the general object sought by the League, the means essential for attaining it, the nature of the League proposed, and its effect, or absence of effect, upon the sovereignty of the members. The articles of the Covenant are taken up in succession and considered in order to make clear their meaning, their purpose, and the necessity or propriety of their provisions.

So far as we have been able to follow the arguments set forth by these able expositors, we feel that the League is certainly the strongest agreement ever entered into by the nations of the world to behave themselves, or suffer the consequences if they do not. The Senate of the United States ought to ratify the Treaty without a moments delay.

We do not know the price of "The Covenantant," but you can get it by a line to Doubleday, Page & Co. Think, however, if you send $1.00 you will get the book, and perhaps some change back.

Some of our readers may be interested in a list of the original members of the League of Nations, signatories of the Treaty of Peace, as follows: United States of America, Belgium, Bolivia, Brazil, British Empire, Canada, Australia, South Africa, New Zealand, India, China, Cuba, Czechoslovakia, Ecuador, France, Greece, Guatemala, Haiti, Hedjaz, Honduras, Italy, Japan, Liberia, Nicaragua, Panama, Peru, Poland, Portugal, Rumania, Serbia, Siam, Uruguay, (33).

The following nations have been invited to accede to the Covenant: Argentine Republic, Chile, Colombia, Denmark, Netherlands, Norway, Paraguay, Persia, Salvador, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland, Venezuela.

FARMERS BEGIN TO WORRY OVER WHEAT

The rain which fell in torrents all day Sunday, and was followed Monday by much humidity, has caused worry among farmers whose wheat crops are still in the fields, unthreshed. The dampness and heat is liable to cause the wheat to sprout and to rot.

A large percentage of the wheat is unthreshed, and much of it has been allowed to remain in the fields, awaiting the arrival of the threshers. Shocks will have to be opened in order that the wheat may dry out, and another rainfall while it is in that condition would cause further damage.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

BY JANE PHELPS.

EVERETT TELLS SANDRA OF
LEOLA.

CHAPTER XX.
"Another proof of guilt," I thought as I realized the pictures were missing. "Why it was like a fiction story!" I was sure I never had heard one quite like it. There ran through my mind even then that if I had to leave Everett, I would be ashamed to go home. Ashamed to face all the boys and girls who had known me all my life. What an awful thing for me. Only seventeen! and my life ruined.

Then such anguish went through me that I nearly fainted.
Dinner time came at last and with it came Everett. He looked tired and talked but little. I thought dinner would never end. At last we were seated in the library before the fire with our coffee. I moved my chair so that I could look at him, and then when we were alone, I asked without preamble:

"Who is the lovely woman whose pictures are in your bureau drawers, Everett?" My voice trembled a little in spite of all I could do.

He gave a perceptible start.
"What pictures? And what were you doing in my things?"

"Mother always tidies dad's chiffonier so I thought I would do the same for you." I answered his last question first so that I might gain time to steady my voice a little. "The pictures were of a beautiful woman. On the back of one it said 'From Leola to Everett.' What an odd name, Leola," I repeated.

Something very like groan broke from Everett.

"As well now as some other time," he said in a low voice, but I realized he was talking to himself; that he had not meant me to hear. I said nothing, but waited, every nerve in my body quivering with excitement. "Sit over there," he pointed to a chair where he could look at me, but where it would be impossible for me to see his face.

Reluctantly I obeyed.
"I meant to tell you before. It is your right to know. But you were so young that I waited a while hoping you might become accustomed to me and so better able to understand what I am going to tell you."

He waited so long that I thought he had changed his mind, and stirred uneasily. I was all a-thrill with the wonder, the something akin to fear of what was coming, the story my husband was about to tell me.

He took from his pocket the two pictures I had mentioned. He looked at them, then opened a drawer in a little table at his elbow and laid them in it.

"Yes, Leola is an unusual name; and she was an unusual woman. She was my wife. We married when I was thirty, she was twenty-six. I was jealous. She was imprudent and would brook no restraint. We quarreled constantly. Yet—I loved her," his voice trailed off dreamily for a moment as if he had forgotten me, "and she loved me. But she was strong willed," his voice cold and

There is perhaps no one thing that so plainly shows the passing of our youth as the horrible tendency to put on too much weight after we have reached the age of 25 or 30 years. However young our faces may appear, the sagging, flabby figure, and forty inch waist "gives us away."

The cause of this over stoutness is that our stomachs convert the food we eat into fat because there is not enough oxygen in the blood to produce a proper combustion to destroy the excess fatty tissue. Fat people will be pleased to learn of a simple home method that is wonderfully efficient in reducing weight, quickly and easily without a starving diet, violent massage or strenuous exercise. Go to any drug store and get a box of Phynola; take five grains after each meal and at bed time. This treatment will often give quick relief from overburdening fat. Phynola taken at meal time assists the stomach in giving you the benefit of the food you eat; at the same time dissolves the fatty tissue from any part of the body where there is excessive fat. By this method many have reduced their weight a pound a day and there is no flabbiness left. Sayre & Hemphill can supply you with the genuine Phynola at a small cost.

calm again, "and so was I. Our fierce love-making was interrupted by fiercer quarrels—always because of some indiscretion of hers, and because of my jealousy which she aroused. I was rich, she was a brilliant woman. Society laughed at her indiscretions, calling them eccentricities. She knew this and it made her careless—careless of herself, and of me."

Again he waited what seemed an unconscionable time before he went on while I waited breathless, forgetting it was my husband who was talking, thinking only of the story he was telling me.

"One day she met a man who seemed to attract her more even than others had done. I accused her, and she only laughed. My impression was confirmed when one day I found him making love to her. She was laughing, sure of her fascinations and careless that she hurt him, as she was indifferent to my anguish. That night we quarreled worse than ever before. We both said cruel, bitter things—I shall never cease to hear them. I know now, I knew then, that Leola was good and true. In my heart I never doubted her."

Tomorrow—More About Leola.

Uncle Eben.

"Imitation is the sincerest flattery," said Uncle Eben, "but when it's carried too far it's the same kind of a compliment a burglar pays you when he takes a likin' to yob watch."

Stomach is Quick to Upset When School Children Are Idle

VACATION days are days of over-eating and under-exercising for most boys and girls. They loiter around nibbling at light food, unconcerned whether the fruit is green or ripe.

The result is cramps, skin eruptions, pimples, "summer colds," constipation and diarrhea. The basis of such trouble is an upset stomach, and nothing will give safer and quicker relief than the well-known Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is just a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin, a formula evolved some 30 years ago by Dr. Caldwell himself. Syrup Pepsin is now used by millions of people and is today the largest-selling liquid laxative in the world.

It is the mildest and gentlest of laxatives. It regulates the stomach and bowels so well that they can soon work normally again without the aid of medicine. And unlike the harsher physics and cathartics, Syrup Pepsin does not gripe or cause discomfort, even to a tiny baby.

A bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin can be bought at any drug store for 50c and $1, the latter the family size. A free trial bottle can be had by sending your address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 480 Washington St., Monticello, Ill.

It's a useless waste of good fuel and a needless extravagance to try to burn it in a poor stove. It is absolutely wrong to expect good food to supply energy, vitality, health and happiness if your stomach won't absorb and assimilate it. If you cannot eat with enjoyment, if your food does you no good, if food distresses rather than benefits, then you have indigestion or dyspepsia. The best remedy to use is PEP SINCO.

PROF. SCHLESINGER RESIGNS POSITION AT STATE UNIVERSITY

Prof. Arthur M. Schlesinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Schlesinger of this city, has resigned his position in the department of history of Ohio State University, and will probably become head of the department of history in the Iowa State College.

The Ohio State Journal says of his resignation: "Prof. A. M. Schlesinger of the American history department, Ohio State University, is among a score of professors and assistants leaving to accept better-paying positions at other educational institutions or in business. Schlesinger has resigned and probably will become head of the American history department in the University of Iowa."

By appointment of Governor Cox, he has been engaged in writing a history of Ohio's part in the war. Schlesinger also is a member of the committee of 48 representing each state in the country, which is circulating petitions calling for a convention in October at Chicago or St. Louis to form a new national political party of liberal thinkers. It is characterized by some as a cross between Wilson democracy and the Socialist party. Its advocates contend that none of the present day parties has a true grasp of the needs of labor and other public problems.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED AT PARTY

Wednesday evening, July 16th, Miss Lauretta Hurley entertained at her home with a lawn party, announcing the approaching marriage of her sister, Miss Veda A. Hurley, to Roscoe Beal, of Xenia. The lawn was effectively decorated in pink and white, harmonizing beautifully with the green foliage, distinct through the gleam of the Japanese lanterns, which were hung about the lawn.

As the Victrola struck with an opening chord to a march, a mock wedding was arranged in a simple, but pleasing way, revealing to the guests the interesting secret.

About the trees, cards with kupies were hung, and on each a girl's name was written. As each boy found a card, he led his partner to a table, where a two-course supper was served.

From a cosy little spot under the grape arbor, lemonade was served.

Those present were: The Misses Ella and Agnes Shambaugh, Laura Stephens, Anna Furnas, Reva Hormet, Mrs. Freda Spears, Edith Jenkins, Kathleen Gerhard, Veda and Lauretta Hurley, Ernestine and Howard Shambaugh, who acted as bride and groom in the mock wedding; Donald Smith, acting as preacher; Mrs. Levy Shambaugh, John Denny, Denzil Earley, Keller Hoake, Oscar Stanfield, Wilbur Spears, Donald DeHaven, Lonie Gerhard, Roscoe Beal, Kenneth Coate and Carl Smith.

The bride and groom-to-be will have many hearty congratulations, as both have a large circle of friends.

WEAVER-SMITH

John Weaver and Mrs. Marie Smith of south of Bellbrook slipped away very quietly and were married in Newport, Ky., last Wednesday morning. The bride was attired in blue georgette, with hat to match. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Kolker, south of town and a pretty and very attractive woman, while the groom is a son of I. F. Weaver and is connected with the firm of I. F. Weaver and Sons, and is very popular among his associates. They will reside at his home in Bellbrook.

ALL WORN OUT

Does morning find you with a lame, stiff and aching back? Are you tired all the time—find work a burden? Have you suspected your kidneys? Xenia people endorse Doan's Kidney Pills. You can rely on their statements.

Mrs. W. I. Smith, 28 Walnut St., Xenia, says: "A few years ago I had kidney trouble that about used me up. I ached from the small of my back up into the back of my head. I was also dizzy and nervous and every time I did much of anything, I began to get tired out and would be awfully weak. Sometimes, I could hardly do any work. A neighbor advised me to try Doan's Kidney Pills, but as I had tried so many different kidney remedies, I didn't think they would help. She finally persuaded me to give Doan's a trial and they entirely cured me. I have never felt better than since I used Doan's Kidney Pills."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Smith had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

MORE RED BLOOD AND STEADIER NERVES FOR RUN DOWN PEOPLE

The World Demands, Strong, Vigorous,
Keen-Minded, Men and Women

It has been said of Americans that they work their habits overtime. Many become nervous and inefficient by overwork. By worry, despondency, social affairs, robbing brain and body of needed rest; excessive use of tobacco, indulgence in strong alcoholic drink—excesses of every kind that burn up the vital powers so necessary in these trying times to make both men and women fit to be of help to themselves and others.

It is time to be temperate in all things. The man or woman with impaired nerves caused by impoverished blood lacks vigor, the ambition, the endurance and the keen mind of those who avoid excesses.

Timidity, despondency, fear, trembling hands, want of confidence and even cowardliness, are due in a large measure to abused nerves. People with plenty of red blood and steady nerves, healthy nerves have no desire to shirk work and lean on others for guidance and support.

There is hardly a nerve-shattered man or woman (unless of an organic disease) in America today who cannot become alert and clear in mind; vigorous and energetic in body in a very few weeks and at trifling cost. To become strong and ambitious, to feel that work is not drudgery; to have steady nerves, abundance of red blood and power of endurance; to be not only a man but as men now are, a superman, you must take seven tablets of Bio-feren every day for seven days and take them faithfully.

Take two after each meal and one at bedtime and after seven days take one only after meal until the supply is exhausted.

Then if you feel that any claim made in this special notice is untrue—if your nerves are not twice as steady as before; if you do not feel confident, more vigorous and keen-minded, the pharmacist who dispensed the tablets to you will gladly hand you back just what you paid for them.

Bio-feren is without doubt the grandest remedy for nervous, rundown, weak, anemic men and women ever offered direct through druggists and is not at all expensive. Sayre & Hemphill and all other druggists in this city and vicinity have a supply on hand—sell many packages.

From YOUR standpoint
THIS IS THE GREATEST SALE
WE HAVE EVER HAD—AND WE'VE HAD SOME AWFULLY GOOD ONES

In former years when prices of woollens and workmanship were normal it wasn't so hard to hold a sale—because a store could go back into the market and be sure of getting duplicates AT THE SAME PRICES THEY PAID FOR ORIGINALS—BUT NOT SO TODAY.

EVERY SUIT IN THIS STOCK IS WORTH MORE TO-
DAY THAN WHEN
WE BOUGHT IT—
BUT STILL THE RE-DUCTIONS ARE
FROM THE REASON-
ABLE PRICES—
THAT WERE BAS-ED ON WHAT WE
PAID FOR THEM
THEN.

At this Sale Saving
$5.00 is easy—Saving
$10.00 is mild and some men stand to save a clean $15.00.

If you haven't given the matter much thought—get busy now—The suits are here—so are the buyers—if you wait too long—we'll be short of your size or shy of your pattern just as sure as you're a foot high.

Ellenberger, eight-day advance man who arrived Sunday evening from Williamson, W. Va. In addition Mr. Ellenberger is distributing pennant ropes, window cards, "Community Builders," Chautauqua hats and various other pieces of attractive advertising.

The final week preliminary to the Chautauqua will be a week of intensive campaign on the part of the local committee. The ticket sale will be pushed day and night and it is believed that the attendance this year will be far in excess of any previous record.

Brilliant entertainment and constructive lectures are the features of the 1919 Redpath program. It is difficult to conceive of a better investment than a Chautauqua season ticket when it is considered that it admits to these interesting features:

Althea Violin Chorus, Lou J. Beauchamp, humorous philosopher; Knight MacGregor, Scottish baritone; Clarissa Harrold in a modern play; Frank L. Mulholland, lecture on "The Path of Greatest Profit"; Henry A. Adrain, "With Burbank in Wonderland"; "The Melting Pot," with a cast of ten people; Sibyl Sammis-MacDermid dramatic soprano; Elizabeth M. Walsh, overseas Red Cross heroine; "The Chocolate Soldier" Twentieth Century musical comedy, with a cast of twenty five players; the Karyl Orchestral Sextet, Katharine Ridgeway, reader; the Weber Male Quartet of New York City and Captain Paul Bewsher, British air poet and night bomber.

Become Slender

A Simple, Guaranteed Method

If you would like to lose, weekly, from one to five pounds of burdensome fat while eating and drinking all you need, also enjoying life far better than at present, just follow this advice:

Take seven deep breaths of fresh air each morning and evening; after each meal take a little oil of korein; eat all you need, but chew thoroughly, and follow other simple directions of the guaranteed Korean system. Men and women who were waddling around with heavy, sluggish bodies have, in many cases, reported a gradual, agreeable reduction of thirty to eighty pounds, with wonderful benefit to health and figure. This very reason is the time to become slender, attractive, vivacious and healthier, very easily.

Get oil of korein at the druggist's; it comes in capsules, convenient to use and is now sold at before-war low price. Weigh and measure yourself week to week. You can scarcely realize the joy that awaits you in normal symmetrical figure, with good health and longer life. Show others this advertisement.

CUSTOMER—"Give me a Firestone; I know what it will do and I haven't time to experiment on an unknown tire."

DEALER—"Sure; you want most miles per dollar and I want most friends per mile."

MRS. BRADFIELD IS HOSTESS AT PARTY HONORING BRIDE TO BE

Mrs. Morris Bradfield was hostess to a dozen girl friends at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Brown, on the Cincinnati pike, Friday afternoon for the pleasure of Miss Frieda Grottenick, the fiancée of George D. Geyer.

Sweet peas and nasturtium decked the rooms, and tiny baskets with candies were the favors. The guest of honor was given a "shower" of gifts, and dainty hand painted china, cut glass and linen were among the presents she received. The guests enjoying the afternoon were: Miss Grottenick, Messrs. Bernice Swabb, Miriam Hawkins, Louise Parrett, Cleo Hurley, Mary Crow, Pauline Smith, Mary Katharine Geyer, Mrs. Henry Dietz of Sidney and Mrs. Cecil Conklin.

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR SAMUEL ELLIS

Many friends attended funeral services for Samuel Ellis, which were held at the late home on the Clifton pike Saturday. The Rev. H. C. Biddlecum was in charge of the service, assisted by the Rev. Ames Cook. Remarks concerning the life of the decedent were also made by persons in the gathering, according to the old time custom of the Friends, of which faith Mr. Ellis was a member.

Interment was made in the burial ground on the Ellis farm. The pallbearers were Ellis and John Hill, R. F. Bryson, W. B. Bryson, Herbert Davis and Michael Day of Springfield.

BELLBROOK

We received information this week that Prof. M. Jay Flannery, who has been an instructor in Latin in the Hamilton schools for a number of years has been employed to teach the Fairfield High school for the coming year. The Professor was a resident of Bellbrook at two different periods of his life. The first time in the 70's when he was an employee of the Bumgardner carriage works, and the second time in 1882 when he became a teacher in the village schools.

ond time in 1882 when he became a teacher in the village schools.

The old elm tree at the intersection of Greene, Montgomery and Warren counties that has withstood the howling storms of more than 100 years, had a number of limbs blown from its gigantic trunk in a recent storm.

Mack Murphy and daughter Clara spent Friday with old acquaintances in the village. Mr. Murphy was a former business man of the village, having operated a general store in one of the buildings destroyed in the recent fire.

A most interesting interview with Major Rooks who claims the distinction of being the youngest soldier to bear arms in the Union army during the rebellion, revealed many facts that were altogether unknown to the public, his most intimate friends not being aware of the honor that was his. Mr. Rook's account of his enlistment and service, and his determination to prove a clear title to his claim is given in his own words as follows:

"I enlisted from Sugarcreek township in the second year of the war. I was 12 years and 9 months old at the time. I took part in a number of battles during my two years' service and came out each time unhurt. The only injuries sustained was at a Fourth of July celebration in Virginia in the 1st year of the war when my eyes were severely burned by powder. After the war a contention arose in different sections of the north as to who was the youngest soldier in the service. The contention continued for a number of years till 1887 when all rivals to the honor withdrew their claims leaving the late Senator Foraker and myself the only contestants. It was agreed between Mr. Foraker and myself to compare the records as found in the family bibles. This was accordingly done at the old Foraker home in Highland county and I revealed the fact that the late senator was one month and 12 days older than myself."
